Foreword

Welcome to Forward Mid's Directory for Disabled People and people with long-term conditions 2024.

This is the 10th edition of the Directory Forward Mid has produced and continues the tradition of being an invaluable guide to Disabled people living in Midlothian, and to public private and third sector organisations who provide services for disabled people and people with long term conditions.

When I say invaluable, I refer to the situation that the Covid pandemic continues to intensify the long-standing inequalities experienced by disabled people, people with long-term conditions and carers. Information on issues that are key to stop this inequality gap widening, continue to be meagre to say the least.

Good quality, accurate and up-to-date information that is truly accessible is essential. Glasgow Disability Alliance, with over 5000 members, surveyed their membership and found that 80% of them were not aware of any local support services they could access, and 41% had difficulties accessing information in formats required.

Good quality, accurate and up-to-date information is what Forward Mid's Directory delivers. It signposts people to organisations that can give them the support they need whether that is to resolve a specific issue, finding a social activity you might enjoy or a wider goal such as gaining more control of their lives.

The Directory was completed towards the end of 2023 and was accurate at that time. Of course, in these uncertain times we cannot guarantee that the information we have printed will still be relevant in the months ahead. Any changes to entries will be updated on the online version of the Directory.

Forward Mid's 2024 Directory Is available online in two formats:

- Mobile Device at www.forwardmid.org.uk/pdf/mobiledirectory2024.pdf
- Print Quality Device at www.forwardmid.org.uk/pdf/printdirectory2024.pdf

Forward Mid share wealth of useful information on issues that affect disabled people; publishing and distributing bi-monthly newsletter and maintain a website and Facebook page. paper copies can be provided by contacting Eric Johnstone ☎ 0131 663 9471.

Large format is also available by special request.

We believe this directory will enable and support people to identify and connect with services that have the potential to improve their quality of life allowing them to live the kind of life they choose whether that be an 'ordinarily' or an extraordinary life. If you agree, please share the details of how they can get copies of this with other people or organisations you think would benefit from having a Forward Mid Directory of their own.

Keep safe and healthy.

Kindest regards,
Jeff Adamson
Chair, Forward Mid

In order to produce this directory, various organisations were asked to provide information. For the purposes of this directory, this information has often been repeated verbatim.

This directory provides a platform for practical information, organisations are always evolving and changing contact details. Forward Mid accept no responsibility for these changes.

Disability Discrimination Act

The Disability Discrimination Act states that you are disabled if you have:

A mental or physical impairment that has an adverse effect on your ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

If the disability has badly affected the ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities but doesn't anymore, it will still be counted as having that effect if it is likely to do so again.

If it is a progressive condition such as HIV, Multiple Sclerosis or Arthritis, and it will badly affect your ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities in the future, it will be treated as having a bad effect on you now - past disabilities are covered.

What are "normal day-to-day activities"?

At least one of these areas must be badly affected:

- Mobility,
- Manual dexterity,
- Physical co-ordination,
- Continence,
- Ability to lift, carry or move everyday objects,
- Speech, hearing or eyesight,
- Memory or ability to concentrate, learn or understand,
- Understanding of the risk of physical danger.

It's fundamental to think about the effect of a disability without treatment. The Act says that any treatment or correction should not be taken into account, including medical treatment or the use of a prosthesis or other aid.

The things taken into account, are glasses or contact lenses. The indispensable thing is to perceive how a disability affects a person. Remember concentrating on what they can't achieve or find problematic, rather than what they can achieve. If a person suffers from a hearing disability, being unable to hold a conversation with someone talking naturally in a moderately noisy place constitutes a disability. Being unable to hold a conversation in a extremely noisy place like a factory floor would not.

If the disability affects their mobility only being able to walk slowly or with unsteady or jerky movements would constitute a disability. But having difficulty walking without help for about 1.5 kilometres or a mile without having to stop would not.

Equality Act 2010

Equality Act 2010 makes it illegal to discriminate against a person with a disability. However, you must prove that you have a disability, The Act defines a disabled person as a person with a disability for the purposes of the Act if he or she has a physical or mental impairment and the impairment has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

To find out what qualifies or what does not qualify please download The Equality Act 2010 Guidance on matters to be taken into account in determining questions relating to the definition of disability  www.forwardmid.org.uk/publications.html (727kb pdf)

Discrimination With Work

While attending a job interview an employer is not permitted to ask about your disability and what effects it may have if you are employed. If you require additional absence for medical appointments and have not informed the employer then this is called non-disclosure and you can be dismissed. Reasonable adjustments can be made by an employer. It is your responsibility to tell the employer of any reasonable adjustment you expect them to make to accommodate your needs as some expenses can be met. Associative discrimination is also covered as an employer must make reasonable adjustment if the person employed has a partner or child who is disabled.

An employer who uses the Disability Confident symbol and declares themselves as positive about disability ensures you'll be guaranteed an interview if you meet the basic conditions for the job. If this does not happen you should report it to the Disability Employment Adviser at the local Jobcentre Plus office.

An employer is not legally required to meet the commitments of the Disability Confident scheme. However, there may be a legal claim under the Equality Act if an employer treats some disabled people more favourably than others. If the employer operates the guaranteed interview scheme for a particular post, but refuses to give an interview to a particular disabled person, this may be unlawful as direct discrimination.

Access to Services

It is unlawful for service providers to treat you less favourably because of your disability, and they must make 'reasonable adjustments' for you, such as giving you extra help or changing the way they provide their services. Service providers must consider making changes to physical features of their premises so that there are no physical barriers which prevent you from using their services, or make it unreasonably difficult for you to do so.

It doesn't matter whether or not you pay for the service - it's providing the service that matters. Services include going to a restaurant, shopping for clothes or food, using the local library, going to church or visiting your solicitor or doctor. They have to make changes when it's unreasonably difficult. They should think about whether any inconvenience, effort, discomfort or loss of dignity you experience in using the service would be considered unreasonable by other people, if they had to endure similar difficulties. This includes requesting ramps for wheelchair access.

In most circumstances, service providers must make reasonable adjustments to remove any barriers – physical or otherwise – that could make it difficult or impossible for disabled customers to use their services.

Service providers do not have to make adjustments to make their services more accessible to disabled people if this will lead to a breach of any other legal obligations that apply to them. However, there will be exceptional circumstances that apply only where the other legal obligations are very specific, and leave the service provider no choice but to act in a certain way.

Discrimination on the World Wide Web

Examples of website design issues that are affected by this law abound. For instance, many visually impaired visitors use speech synthesizer software to read the text in the HTML code of web pages and translate it into audible speech. However, many websites include images that contain text as part of the pre-rendered picture file. These may be unreadable by the software. If the text is not embedded in the image properties (using an alt tag) or alternatively available in text somewhere on the website, this could render the content inaccessible to visually impaired users. They could therefore be discriminated against under Equality Act 2010.

The laws that cover this will allow individuals or groups to take civil action against the web site owner. This is called passive law. You may be liable for costs even if you win.

Models of Disability

Social Model

The Social Model has been developed by disabled people in direct response to the Medical Model and the profound impact it has on their lives.

Under the Social Model, disability is caused by the society in which we live and is not the 'fault' of an individual disabled person; or an inevitable consequence of their limitations. Disability is the product of the physical, organisational and attitudinal barriers present within society, which lead to discrimination.

The removal of discrimination demands a change of approach and thinking in the way in which society is organised.

The Social Model takes account of disabled people as part of our economic, environmental and cultural society. The barriers that prevent any individual playing a part in society are the problem, not the individual. Potential barriers still exist in education, information and communication systems and the working environments. Health and social support services, housing, public buildings and amenities. Transport. The devaluing of disabled people through negative images in the media – films, television and newspapers – also acts as a barrier.

Social Media introduced alternative text options for images and closed captions for video, to allow visually impaired users to read aloud the content. However, the uptake is exceedingly limited. Some Social Media platforms tried implementing artificial intelligence recognition software to include alternative text. This method still has teething problems to worked out.

The Social Model has been developed with the aim of removing barriers so that disabled people have the same opportunity as everyone else to influence their own lifestyles.

The Social Model of disability has fundamentally changed the way in which disability is regarded and has had a major impact on anti-discriminatory legislation.

Medical Model

Under the Medical Model, disabled people are traditionally defined by their specific illness or medical condition. They are disempowered: medical diagnoses are cynically implemented to regulate and control access to social benefits, housing, education, leisure and meaningful employment.

The Medical Model promotes the negative view of a disabled person as dependent and needing to be cured or needing care. This view justifies the way in which disabled people have been systematically excluded from society. The disabled person presents the problem, not society. Control resides firmly with professionals; choices for the individual are limited to the limited options provided and approved by the 'helping' expert.

The Medical Model is sometimes known as the 'Individual Model.' Because it promotes the notion that it is the individual disabled person who must adapt to the way in which society is traditionally constructed and organised.

The Medical Model is vigorously rejected by organisations of disabled people, but it still pervades many attitudes towards disabled people.

Self-Directed Support

What is Self-Directed Support?

Self-directed Support is about giving a person requiring support more choice and control over the social care support they receive to enable them to live as independently as possible. Some people can manage their support on their own, while others need help either from family or friends, or a support organisation.

Self-Directed Support:-choose how your support is provided.

Anyone who is assessed as being eligible for social care support will be offered a choice in the way they would like to receive their support.

You will be offered 4 choices on how you can receive your social care:

- Option 1: The making of a direct payment by the local authority to the supported person for the provision of support.

You take the money, and choose and organise your support.

You can use the payment to:

- ➡ Buy support from a provider,
- ➡ Or employ your own staff.

This option gives you the most choice and flexibility, but it does mean taking on more responsibilities. (You can get help with this.)

- Option 2: You choose the support, and either the council or a support provider arranges it. This means you don't have to manage the money, but you still actively organise your support.

- Option 3: You ask the council to arrange the support but you can still be involved in the choice of the provider if you wish to.
- Option 4: Mix and match options 1, 2 and 3. SDS is about choices: you can arrange support from a support provider and/or you can employ your own staff.

SDS is meant to be used flexibly. You should be able to use it creatively so long as it meets your needs.

Support with Self-Directed Support:

The person carrying out your assessment will be able to talk you through each option. For more information please contact:

Many carers find they can draw on existing supports in the local community, whether that be support from friends and family, local support groups or their local carer centre. Where more support is needed, it may be we can look to do this through social work funding. Each case is assessed individually, we use eligibility criteria to determine what qualifies for social work funding. Cyrenians

For over 50 years, Cyrenians has served those on the edge, working with the homeless and vulnerable to transform their lives by beginning with their story, helping them believe that they can change their lives, and walk with them as they lead their own transformation.

Cyrenians Vision is an inclusive society in which everyone has the opportunities to live valued and fulfilled lives. Cyrenians work to make that vision a reality by Cyrenians Mission to support people excluded from family, home, work or community on their life journey.

Cyrenians way of work is built on Cyrenians four core values:

Compassion: Cyrenians believe that everyone should have the chance to change, no matter how long that might take.

Respect: Cyrenians believe in tolerance, acceptance, valuing diversity and treating each other as equals.

Integrity: Cyrenians are committed to the highest quality of work, grounded in honesty, generosity, sincerity and professionalism.

Innovation: Cyrenians are willing to take risks, challenge convention and be very creative in Cyrenians search for new ways of working, in particular by taking account of the environmental impact of Cyrenians decisions.

How Cyrenians work

Cyrenians aim to offer consistently excellent service delivery across all locations and activities. Cyrenians also want to provide clarity for purchasers that Cyrenians services are effective, including evidence of the difference made in the lives of the people Cyrenians support. Cyrenians have adopted a way of working that includes, in particular, training in the interpersonal elements of building 1:1 relationships. Cyrenians Key Work can be defined by:

Cyrenians, attitude: Cyrenians treat people with the respect of equals (adult to adult). Cyrenians respond to the whole person rather than just the evident problems.

Cyrenians, style: Cyrenians work with people, preferring where possible to work 'at the shoulder' rather than from the other side of a desk. Cyrenians want to create independence, not dependency.

Cyrenians, practice: Cyrenians are flexible, tolerant and understanding. Cyrenians are tenacious in the offer of help and if Cyrenians can't help; Cyrenians will guide people to those who can.

Working predominantly in Edinburgh, Lothians, Falkirk, Borders, Stirling but also with Scotland-wide services, Cyrenians work is organised around four targeted areas of service:

- Family and People,
- Home and Housing,
- Work and Skills,
- Community and Food.

Emergency Services

Police Scotland

999 Emergency Number

In an emergency you should always  999 if:

- There is a risk of personal injury or loss of life,
- A crime is in progress,
- Someone suspected of a crime is nearby.

Deaf, deafened, hard of hearing or speech-impaired callers using a Textphone (minicom) should dial  18000 in an emergency.

Alternatively, if you are deaf, hard of hearing and speech-impaired, you can register with emergency SMS text service. The emergency SMS service lets people in the UK send an SMS text message to the UK 999 service where it will be passed to the police, ambulance, fire rescue or coastguard.

101 Non-Emergency Number

For non-emergencies and general enquiries,  101 is the number you call if you need to contact the police. Using  101 for situations that do not require an immediate police response helps keep  999 available for when there is an emergency.

Calls to  101 from landlines and mobiles cost 15 pence per call, no matter what time of day you call or how long your call lasts.

Calls to Police Scotland may be recorded for training and service improvement purposes.

Hate Crime & Third Party Reporting

Did you know that Hate Crime is any criminal offence committed against an individual or property that is motivated by a person's hatred of someone because of his or her actual or perceived race, religion, transgender identity, sexual orientation or disability?

Hate Crime is wrong, it is against the law, and everyone has the right to live safely and without fear. No two individuals are ever the same - embrace individuality and help put an end to Hate crime by reporting it.

You can report a Hate Crime as follows:

- By Telephone ☎ 999 (emergency) ☎ 101 (non-emergency),
- In person at any Police station,
- Online – please visit the Police Scotland website.

Third party reporting

In some cases victims/witnesses of Hate Crime do not feel comfortable reporting the matter directly to the Police and may be more comfortable reporting it to someone they are familiar with.

To ensure all victims/witnesses are able to report Hate Crimes, Police Scotland works in partnership with a wide variety of partners who perform the role of 3rd Party Reporting Centres. Staff within 3rd Party Reporting Centres have been trained to assist a victim or witness in submitting a report to the police and can make such a report on the victim/witnesses behalf.

Examples of 3rd Party Reporting Centres participating in the scheme range from Housing Associations to Victim Support offices and Voluntary Groups.

Third Party Reporting Centres can be found online on the Police Scotland website or ask any police officer for details.

Scottish Ambulance Service

Patient Transport

Scottish Ambulance Service Patient Transport Service is a core function that takes patients to and from their pre-arranged hospital appointments, or for their admission and discharges to a hospital.

Scottish Ambulance Service picks up patients from their home and takes them to and from their hospital appointment.

A hospital or clinic appointment does not mean that you qualify for ambulance transport. Patients are eligible for this service based upon medical need for transport or assistance.

Transport types

The service operates with a wide range of different vehicles appropriate to the different types of patient we serve. If you have an appointment in the 10 days you can request an ambulance, visit www.scottishambulance.com/contact-us/requesting-an-ambulance/ or ☎ 0300 123 1236 (option 3)

Bookings/cancellations.

Scottish Ambulance service really needs to know if you no longer need ambulance transport, or if your mobility improves; so that the right type of ambulance is sent to you.

Do I qualify?

A hospital or clinic appointment does not mean that you qualify for ambulance transport.

Ambulance transport is available for patients who:

- Require assistance from skilled ambulance staff,
- Have a medical condition that would prevent them from travelling to hospital by any other means,
- Have a medical condition that might put them at risk from harm if they were to travel independently,
- Have mobility difficulties that require the assistance of ambulance care staff,
- Are attending hospital for treatment that might have side effects and require ambulance care on the return journey.

Why do I need to qualify?

Patients who are allocated transport unnecessarily may be preventing a patient with a genuine medical reason from getting to hospital.

Can a relative come with me?

Unfortunately, space on ambulance transport is very limited. This means that you can't take an escort with you unless you have a medical need that would require treatment during your ambulance journey. Two examples of this are children and sight impaired patients.

We really need to know if you no longer need ambulance transport. If you have transport booked you can cancel it by visiting <https://www.scottishambulance.com/contact-us/cancelling-your-transport/> or phoning ☎ 0300 123 1236 (option 2). Please leave your name, which clinic or ward and hospital, date and time of appointment.

Home Fire Safety Visit: As part of our commitment to building a safer Scotland we offer everyone in Scotland a free home fire safety visit. We can also fit smoke alarms free of charge if your home requires them.

🌐 <https://cset.firescotland.gov.uk/Public/HFSV/RequestVisit>

☎ 0800 0731 999,

Call your local fire station,

Text "Fire" to 📱 80800 from your mobile phone.

Having a disability makes it difficult to check alarms about the house. You will need to have more than one planned escape route in the event of a fire.

Remember:

Plan your escape route now. Practice with your family,

If a fire starts, shout to warn everyone in the house,

Get out quickly. Don't stop for valuables,

Keep low down. Air is cleaner and cooler nearer the floor,

Don't look for the fire – keep doors closed,

If you can't escape, get everyone in a safe room,

Never jump out of a window – if you can, lower yourself onto cushions. But only ever attempt this as a last resort,

When you're out, STAY OUT.

Midlothian Local Area Co-ordination

What is Local Area Co-ordination (LAC)?

Local Area Co-ordination is based on a vision of a society where disabled people and their carers are valued as full and equal members of the community.

In Midlothian, Local Area Co-ordinators work alongside

- Children and adults (up to 64 years) with learning disability; physical disability; sensory impairment; and their families.
- We work alongside people to enable them to become more confident, supporting them to achieve their dreams and to build good lives.
- We also work alongside communities, groups and organisations, supporting them to become more welcoming and inclusive.

What Local Area Co-ordinators do?

Local Area Co-ordinators do lots of different things depending on what people and the community want.:

- Give people information, help them find things and offer support about next steps

- Take time to get to know people and their families
- Plan with people and communities
- Raise awareness that everybody should be included
- Help improve how public services work

LAC focus on what people can do, not what they can't do. We understand that services are not always the way for people to achieve their goals.

Beeslack Family Club

Beeslack Family Club has been running for over 30 years. Beeslack Family Club started as a Pilot Project in April 1985. The aim of the club is to provide a range of activities for “children and adults with additional support needs.” The club creates opportunities that enable members and their families to integrate socially, recreationally and educationally as well as providing a vital consistent space for families to take part in activities without restrictions.

Many of Beeslack Family Club members suffer with significant complex additional needs such as Downs Syndrome, Partially Sighted, Arthritis, Diabetic, Epilepsy, Autism, Parkinson's, Stroke, Cerebral Palsy, Fragile X Syndrome, ADHD, Coeliac Disease, BI Polar, and hearing impairment. The club has a fully inclusive policy and is the only weekend family club of its kind in operation in Midlothian.

Over the years we have expanded somewhat and currently, we offer a variety of activities - cookery, arts & crafts, woodwork, swimming, computers, sensory garden, cycling (we have an adapted trike), music, pool and a coffee bar.

Everyone welcome. For further information please contact:

Lothian Disability Sport

Lothian Disability Sport was originally set up as Lothian Sports Association for the Disabled back in 1962. Since then it has evolved over the decades, culminating in the creation of the registered Scottish Charity Lothian Disability Sport (LDS) in 1998.

Aims Of Lothian Disability Sport

The underlying principles of LDS are to promote sport and physical activity for people with a physical, learning or sensory impairment through the following ways:

- To promote the welfare of all people with a disability through sport and physical recreation by providing sporting and leisure opportunities for all people with a disability,
- To help individuals develop confidence through participation in sport and leisure activities in order to promote health and well being,
- To encourage individuals to develop any particular sporting abilities which they may have and to aid them in furthering their sporting potential to a level to which they aspire,

- To provide and promote opportunities for clubs and club members to participate in a range of sporting and leisure activities, including competitive sport, and encourage and support them to do so,
- To publish and distribute regular up-to-date information on activities and facilities.

To help us achieve these aims we offer:

- a Lothian wide programme of competitive and participatory events in selected sports, for both school aged and senior athletes,
- co-ordination of participation by athletes and teams at Scottish Disability Sport National sports events,
- a regular newsletter detailing recent news and achievement and highlighting forthcoming events,
- information on coaching and training opportunities and access to coach education courses, as well as supporting UK Disability Inclusion Training,
- provide support to established and developing clubs in the local area,
- provide grant aid for athletes, clubs, coaches and volunteers where appropriate.

Thistle Foundation

The Thistle Foundation Lifestyle Management Programme is designed to support people who are dealing with difficult life situations or who are living with a long-term health condition.

The programme helps people gain control over their situation by making use of and building on their own coping and recovery strategies. The course aims to boost confidence and self-esteem by acknowledging and celebrating the small successes participants achieve along the way.

The 10-week programme consists of group sessions lasting three hours. These sessions involve discussion, safe and appropriate exercise, and therapeutic relaxation. The courses take place at local community venues, including the Thistle Foundation.

Each individual is offered the opportunity to meet a member of the team to discuss their goals and best hopes before the course begins. Course goals are linked to the 'three Cs' of coping, control and confidence. We focus on identifying strengths and resources, as well as how these can be used to help manage daily life. Our way of working has been developed in response to feedback received from previous course participants. We ask that participants make every effort to attend all sessions.

Course Sessions:

Week 1 Lifestyle Management Philosophy.

Week 2 Sleep Management.

Week 3 Relaxation/Stress Management.

Week 4 Pacing/Energy Management.

Week 5 Getting Active.

Week 6 Pacing/Time Management.

Week 7 Communication Skills.

Week 8 The Mind-body Connection.

VOCAL & Wee Breaks

Voice of Carers Across Lothian (VOCAL)

A carer provides unpaid care to a family member, partner, relative or friend with a physical or mental health condition, disability, long-term condition, or addiction.

A caring role could be as simple as getting their shopping once a week, taking them to medical appointments or you could be responsible for all their everyday needs.

You can't always tell if someone is a carer and you may see yourself as doing what any spouse, partner, son, daughter, parent, relative or friend would do. You are also a carer.

VOCAL's team of carer support practitioners provide one-to-one support to carers online, via telephone and in person. VOCAL range of supports include:

- Support and information on carer rights and entitlements
- Self-directed support and sourcing services
- Creating an Adult Carer Support Plan and Emergency Plan
- Emotional support, including counselling
- Welfare rights and financial support including grants
- Short breaks
- Peer and group support opportunities
- Training courses and events
- Addictions (alcohol and drugs)
- Future planning including Power of Attorney

What is an Adult Carer Support Plan

The Carers (Scotland) Act 2016 makes provision for unpaid carers including the identification of carers' needs through an Adult Carer Support Plan. All local authorities have a duty to prepare an Adult Carer Support Plan for anyone they identify as a carer or for any carer who requests one.

More information on Adult Carer Support Plans can be found in the leaflet  www.vocal.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2018/04/COC-ACSP_VOCAL.pdf and available VOCAL website:  www.vocal.org.uk/carers-support/info-for-carers/practicalsupport/carers-support-plan/ .

Wee Breaks

Becoming a carer affects people in different ways. Whether you felt you had a choice about it or were thrown into your caring role because of circumstances, there is no doubt that caring can be difficult at times. You may appreciate the person you care for but the daily responsibility of attending to their needs may mean that your own needs are often neglected.

Remember when you had time to meet people, go to the cinema or do whatever it was you enjoyed doing? Leisure time is the first thing that disappears for carers and the last thing they have the time for, yet it is one of the best stress relievers.

VOCAL encourages carers to take some 'time out' from their caring role and can help you find and create the right break for you – from a few hours to a few weeks. We can spend time with you and help you think about what would be the best breaks for you and how to achieve this.

Wee Breaks Funds

Through VOCAL Wee Breaks service, you can apply for a break from your caring role. Whether it's a city break or an escape to the countryside, we can help fund your next break. We're flexible in what a break means to you, and you can take a break with or without the person you care for.

VOCAL know that for many carers even thinking about taking a break can be difficult. But VOCAL are here to help and guide you through the process! To apply, visit Wee Breaks website 🌐 www.weebreaks.com or call us on ☎ 0808-196-6666.

VOCAL Wee Breaks Fund could support you with funds to make your break a reality.

You can apply for anything that would give you a break from your caring role, e.g.:

- Sewing machine or equipment to continue a hobby
- Greenhouse or shed to potter/plant
- Companion or sitter service to spend time with the person you care to enable you time for yourself
- Gym membership to help your physical and mental health
- Netflix subscription to watch your favourite TV programmes
- iPad or laptop to keep in touch with others

To be eligible for a Wee Breaks grant, carers must meet the following criteria:

- The person you care for must live in Midlothian and not reside in long-term care
- You are unable to fund the break yourself
- Social Services cannot fund the break as statutory right
- The break will give you time off from your caring role
- Your application can be supported by a professional and you have discussed how a break will benefit you.

All applications are submitted to a panel who meet on the last Wednesday of each month, excluding December. For more information and to apply: 🌐 weebreaks.com/the-wee-breaks-fund/

Defibrillators

As we move forward with our ever-changing world it is important we constantly update our community with new information. Knowledge is power. Forward Mid would like to share with our community information on Public Defibrillators.

A Defibrillator is a device that delivers high energy electric shocks to the heart of someone in Cardiac Arrest. This high-energy shock is called Defibrillation and it is an essential part in trying to save the life of someone in Cardiac Arrest.

Most people who survive will have required a shock from a Defibrillator to correct the chaotic heart rhythm, the earlier a shock is given the better the persons chance of survival. Studies have shown that a shock delivered within 3 minutes of Cardiac Arrest provides the best chance of survival.

Who can use a public defibrillator?

Anyone can. There are clear instructions on how to use the public Defibrillator and attach Defibrillator pads. It will then assess the heart rhythm and at that point instruct the user on how to administer a shock if it is needed. You cannot deliver a shock accidentally. The technology inside the Defibrillator will only allow to shock if it is needed.

Where can a Defibrillator be found?

Defibrillators are located in workplaces and public spaces; they are known collectively as public access defibrillators (PAD's) as anyone can use them.

If you need to use a Defibrillator in an emergency, the 999 call handler will often know where the closest one is and inform you. You can request someone to collect it. By performing CPR and using a Defibrillator you'll give someone the best chance of survival.

If someone is having a Cardiac Arrest there are 3 critical steps.

1. Call ☎ 999,
2. Ask if a Defibrillator is nearby and request passcode,
3. Turn on Defibrillator and follow instructions.

By switching on the defibrillator, it will immediately start to give a series of visual and verbal prompts, informing you of what you require to do. Follow the prompts.

How to use:-

- Remove the pads from the sealed pack. Remove or cut clothing and wipe away any sweat from the chest,
- Remove the backing paper and attach the pads to their chest,
- Place the first pad on their upper right side of the chest just below the collarbone as shown on instructions,
- Place the second on their left side just below the armpit. Make sure you position the pad length ways, with the long side-line with the length of their body.
- Once you have done this, the Defibrillator will start to check the heart rhythm, make sure no one is touching the person experiencing the Cardiac arrest. Continue to follow the instructions the Defibrillator machine provides you with until help arrives.

Only 1 in 12 of people who experience a Cardiac Arrest will survive. There are currently around 3500 public access defibrillators (PAD's) in Scotland.

Midcare Alarm Service

Telecare is a range of equipment placed within your home environment which communicates wirelessly with a central alarm base unit. This will raise an alert automatically if the sensors detect a problem such as a fall, fire or other emergency.

The equipment is plugged into an electric socket and your telephone line. A pendant with a call button is worn by you whilst in your home environment and if you require some of our telecare sensors these are placed around your home. The sensors are not intrusive and are placed discretely where required. If the pendant is pressed or any of the other sensors detect a potential emergency a call is generated via the alarm unit to our control room where staff will provide the appropriate response. The service is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. There is a small weekly charge for this service.

Who can receive this service?

Anyone:

- Anyone of any age who is disabled

- Is vulnerable or frail

What pharmacies provide:

If you are registered with a GP in Scotland, your community pharmacist can provide a minor ailment service. Your pharmacist can offer advice and can generate the paperwork and supply you with a limited source of medication.

Many pharmacies are open when your GP surgery is shut (evenings, weekends and on public holidays). You don't even need to make an appointment to speak to your local pharmacist.

Your local pharmacist provides lots of services and can help if you need help with a minor ailment service.

If you think that someone's life is at risk, you should call 999 right away.

NHS Minor Ailment Service

What is the NHS minor ailment service?

This is an NHS service for people who would not have paid prescription charges under the old system. If your pharmacist thinks you require it then they can authorise medicine and the NHS will pay for it.

Your pharmacist will ask you for your name, date of birth, gender, and postcode, and place the information on a form which you must sign to register for the service. Your pharmacist may ask you for proof of your exemption, for example, your maternity or medical exemption certificate or HC2 certificate. Try to produce the information if you think it might be required.

You may only register with One Community pharmacy at a time for the NHS Minor Ailment Service.

You can get advice and free treatment from your community pharmacist for minor illnesses and ailments such as:

Pharmacies

The Apothecary, The Chemist, or The Pharmacy as it is now commonly known has changed over the years, not only in name but with the services we now provide to the public. A pharmacist goes through extensive training before qualifying, undergoing a four-year degree course at university followed by a post graduate training year known as the Pre-Registration year, after which a final exam must be passed before they are able to work as a fully qualified pharmacist in either community, hospital or in industry. To alleviate pressures in GP practices and hospital casualty departments, pharmacy has been tasked to offer a vast range of services, which they are ably qualified and trained in administering.

Your first port of call in non emergency situations should always be your local pharmacy, where you will either be given advice and treatment, or if necessary referred to your GP. Services which are provided: The Minor Ailment Service, where you can register with your local pharmacy, have a consultation when you will be given appropriate advice, treatment or referral. It covers a varied and extensive range of ailments from coughs and colds to skin conditions, free of charge if you are eligible. Medicine Care Review, where you may be invited by your pharmacist to talk about your medicines, to make sure you are taking them correctly or if there are any issues, they may then inform your GP with your permission, if there is a problem to have it rectified if necessary. You may then be put on a service called Serial Dispensing if appropriate, for your repeat medication, which makes accessing your medicines simpler and quicker. Repeat Medication Service, where your ongoing medication can be ordered directly by the pharmacy usually on a two monthly cycle, and picked up at the pharmacy at your allotted date.

Multi-compartment Compliance Aids (MCA's), where if appropriate medication can be dispensed in weekly trays, mainly for patients who are on a lot of medication and or if they are confused or forgetful.

Palliative Care Pharmacies, where certain pharmacies keep an extensive stock of controlled and anticipatory drugs and are on call for emergency situations.

Flu Vaccination Service, where you can have a flu jab administered at a cost of around £10, but this may be a free service in the near future, for specific groups of the population.

Travel Clinics, some pharmacies offer this service, where you can get all the relevant health information and treatment, for your exotic holidays, at a cost. Blood Pressure Monitoring, Diabetes and Cholesterol checks, can be undertaken at your local pharmacies free of charge (exception cholesterol checks)

Gluten Free (GF) Service, where we can prescribe GF Products free of charge to patients who have been assessed by GP and or Dietician.

Stop Smoking Service, where you will be supported through a 12-week course with weekly treatment and advice. You are 4 times more likely to stop smoking with this service which is free.

Substance Misuse Service, to support with addictions and supply opiate substitutes. Pharmacy First, a newish service that at the moment covers urinary tract infections and impetigo which allows a pharmacist to prescribe antibiotics if appropriate. This service will be extended in the near future to cover other ailments requiring antibiotics. Emergency Hormonal Contraception 'The morning after pill' can be supplied free of charge after a consultation and if it is deemed appropriate. Chlamydia Service, where antibiotics will be prescribed on presentation of a voucher given by a health professional, free of charge.

If the patient is able to leave their home on a regular basis to visit the doctor, hairdresser or shops, either alone or with the assistance of a friend or relative, we will expect them to visit their local clinic. COMPASS. Therapy, Support, Community for people living with neurological conditions, We help people find direction on their neurological journey. We offer a choice of options and continuity of support, to help people explore what works best for them now, and in managing change.

Neurological symptoms are wide ranging and specific to the individual and can include both physical and emotional. Many symptoms are common, such as: persistent fatigue, 'brain fog, weakness, joint pain, depression, non-restorative sleep, decreased alertness. partial or complete loss of sensation, numbness in the legs or arms, changes in coordination or balance, slurred speech and tremors.

Compass. Therapy Support provide:

- Advice and information
- Specialist oxygen therapy
- Physiotherapy
- Adapted and supported exercise classes face to face and online,
- A range of complementary therapies (e.g., acupuncture, myofascial release therapy, aromatherapy massage and reflexology)
- Fatigue management courses
- Community referral pathways
- Wellbeing Support

Compass. Therapy Support offer practical advice and community sharing. We actively encourage befriending, peer

Our trading name change reflects that, in addition to providing self-management support therapies and services for those with living MS, an increasing amount of our work is now supporting people with other neurological conditions. This includes those living with ME/Chronic Fatigue Syndrome, Stroke, Traumatic Brain Injury, Fibromyalgia, Parkinson's, and severe Migraine/Cluster Headaches.

Therapy Support Fund.

All our therapies and classes are heavily subsidised through our Therapy Support Fund (TSF). This enables us to operate a minimum contribution system for those who can make a payment and provide treatment sessions free (limited, dependent upon funds/availability) for those who cannot: means-tested benefits. All community fundraising activities and events and donations help us maintain this fund. Only 12% of our income is derived from local authority grants.

SAMH

Every year 1 in 4 of us in Scotland will experience a mental health problem.

So it's important to be ready to talk about mental health. Whether you are living with a mental health problem or supporting someone who is, accessing information is vital. SAMH is here to help you. Building a network of people who you can trust and share things with can help protect your mental health. A person you trust, such as a friend, family member, colleague or community leader, may be able to provide a listening ear.

If you are an employer, you have a responsibility to make sure you provide an environment that is healthy for all. And similarly, if you work in education, you want to be in the position to offer the right support to students with mental health problems.

It can be very difficult to see someone who you care about becoming distressed and unwell, but you don't need to be an expert on mental health to offer support. Often, small everyday actions can make the biggest difference.

People will want support at different times in different ways, so ask how you can help. It might be useful to help them prepare for a doctor's appointment. If your friend wants to get more exercise, you could do this together, or if your partner is affected by lack of sleep, you could help them get into a regular sleeping pattern.

Keep in mind that having a mental health problem is just one part of the person. People don't want to be identified by their mental health problem, so keep talking about the things you always talked about.

SAMH is the Scottish Association for Mental Health.

Sight Scotland

Charity Sight Scotland has launched a new Family Wellbeing Service, including a telephone helpline, providing support to people with sight loss and their families in the Lothians.

Individuals affected by sight loss, as well as carers, friends and families with a loved one affected by sight loss at any age or stage, can call the Sight Scotland Family Support Line on 0800 024 8973 to access the charity's expert advice, information and practical and emotional support.

The Family Support Line is free to call and open Monday to Friday, 10am – 12pm and 1pm – 3pm.

Following the new service's initial launch in Edinburgh and the Lothians, the charity plans to launch its Family Wellbeing Service nationally in the coming months.

Through the Family Support Line, the Sight Scotland team can provide information and advice on a range of topics including emotional support and befriending; advice on a wide range of visual impairments; equipment, aids and home adaptations; maintaining independence; benefits and financial support; and how and where to get support in your local area.

Research by Sight Scotland had shown that visually impaired people and their families had experienced a lack of support in the early stages of a sight loss diagnosis and in helping family members cope with the impact of their loved one's sight loss on their lives. Sight Scotland's new Family Wellbeing Service aims to tackle this identified gap in support as the charity reaches out to even more people affected by sight loss in Scotland.

Colin Hilditch, Head of Community Services at Sight Scotland, said: "Sight loss has a huge impact on life, not only for the person with visual impairment themselves, but also for their loved ones. Our research revealed a need for more advice and emotional support for the whole family to help them cope with the impact of their loved one's sight loss.

“We are proud to launch the new Sight Scotland Family Wellbeing Service and our new helpline to address this need for support. Our friendly team have extensive knowledge and experience to help each individual in any way sight loss is affecting them, and we hope people with sight loss and their families will reach out to us through our helpline for our expert advice and support.”

Other features of Sight Scotland's Family Wellbeing Service include a befriending service, home visits and online information and advice through Sight Scotland's website, sightscotland.org.uk

Motability

How the Scheme works

The Motability Scheme enables anyone in receipt of a higher rate mobility allowance (such as the Enhanced Rate of the Mobility Component of PIP/ ADP or the Higher Rate Mobility Component of Disability Living Allowance) to use their mobility allowance to lease a car, scooter, powered wheelchair or Wheelchair Accessible Vehicle. The Scheme provides flexible and hassle-free access to a brand-new, reliable vehicle of your choice – giving you greater freedom, every day.

How it works

You simply exchange all, or part of your mobility allowance to lease the vehicle of your choice. You choose the vehicle you want at a price that works for you, and payments are deducted from your higher rate mobility allowance every four weeks, then paid directly to Motability by the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP).

Motability standard lease is over three years or five years if you are leasing a Wheelchair Accessible Vehicle and we take care of running costs such as insurance for up to three named drivers (this doesn't have to be you), servicing, maintenance, breakdown cover and tyre and windscreen repair and replacement. All you need to do is add fuel and go.

Cars

There are various makes, models and types of cars available to lease through the Motability Scheme, from fuel efficient smaller vehicles to roomy estates. Motability know that choosing a car is a big decision therefore Motability are here to help you choose the right car for your needs and budget, Motability have highlighted some of the most important considerations when leasing a car through the Motability Scheme. Electric vehicles now available Motability will arrange and cover the cost of a

Wheelchair Accessible Vehicles

Choosing a Wheelchair Accessible Vehicle (WAV) is a big decision to make, and Motability want to help you find a vehicle that will meet your needs now and in the future.

Scooters and powered wheelchairs

Most scooters and powered wheelchairs cost less to lease per week than your mobility allowance, so the remainder of your allowance continues to be paid directly to you. The cost of your lease includes what Motability call our worry-free package. With over 400 products to choose from Motability want to help you make the right choice.

Wheelchairs on Public Transport

Before you travel on public transport in a wheelchair.

The majority of wheelchair users will be able to travel on public transport.

Wheelchairs that cannot fit on public transport include:

- If your chair is more than 700mm wide by 1500mm length. A normal chair is approx 660mm wide by 1065mm length when you are in it;
- If your chair is very heavy and chair and passenger together exceed 220 kilograms.
- Public Transport do not carry scales it is the wheelchair user's responsibility to know the combined weight. Scales can be found in most hospitals;
- If you need to travel with your legs fully extended or the backrest reclined;
- If you use a scooter that is difficult to manoeuvre and may be unstable in a vehicle.
- You must ensure that your wheelchair is in a safe condition to travel.

This means, for example, making sure that it is correctly maintained, that the tyres are properly inflated, that you have not overloaded the back of the chair with bags (this can cause the chair to tip over backwards on a ramp). If you have a powered chair, you must ensure that the battery is secure. If your chair has adjustable kerb climbers, you should check that they are set so that they do not catch on the ramp.

The transport operator has the right to refuse to let you travel if he believes that your wheelchair is not in a safe condition.

Welfare Rights Team

Our service provides welfare rights benefit advice through advocacy, oral representation at social security appeals and general income maximisation for residents in Midlothian. It provides internal departments across the Council access to advice advocacy and a referral system to ensure key client groups resident in Midlothian have access to welfare benefits advice.

We can offer advice about how to appeal DWP benefit decisions and can provide oral representation at benefit appeals. We offer an income maximisation service for people receiving a Health and social care service and for older people who have reached their retirement age.

Within the team, there is a specialist Macmillan Welfare Rights Officer for people diagnosed with cancer their families and carers.

- The aim of the service is to reduce poverty and social exclusion in Midlothian,
- To work in partnership with Midlothian Financial Inclusion Network. (MFIN) This network helps to promote increased access to accurate advice services and target help to vulnerable groups. The network through its partnership working has been instrumental in securing external funding from the Big Lottery, Scottish Government and other funders to mitigate against the effects of Welfare Reform.

Benefits

Universal Credit

Universal Credit is a payment to help with your living costs. It's paid monthly - or twice a month for some people in Scotland.

You may be able to get Universal Credit if you're on a low income or need help with your living costs. You could be:

- Out of work,
- Working (including self-employed or part time),
- Unable to work, for example because of a health condition.

To claim you must:

- Live in the UK,
- Be aged 18 or over (there are some exceptions if you're 16 to 17),
- Be under State Pension age,
- Have £16,000 or less in money, savings and investments.

If you live with a partner, then you will both need to claim for Universal Credit. You must make a joint claim for your household, even if your partner is not eligible. How much you can get will depend on your partner's income and savings, as well as your own.

Universal Credit payment is made up of a standard allowance and any extra amounts that apply to you, for example if you:

- Have children,
- Have a disability or health condition which prevents you from working,
- Are a carer for a disabled person,
- Need help paying your rent.

If you're employed, how much Universal Credit you get will depend on your earnings. Your Universal Credit payment will reduce gradually as you earn more - for every £1 you earn your payment reduces by 55p. However you may also be eligible for the Work Allowance (also known as the Earnings Disregard) which means that the first part of any wages are not taken into account. There's no limit to how many hours you can work. You can apply for Universal Credit online at Universal Credit:

How to claim - 🌐 GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)

You need to create an account. You use it to make a claim. You must complete your claim within 28 days of creating your account or you will have to start again.

If you live with your partner, you will both need to create accounts. You'll link them together when you claim. You cannot claim by yourself.

If you cannot claim online, you can claim by phone through the Universal Credit helpline.

Employment and Support Allowance (ESA)

Contribution based ESA is an allowance for people claiming benefit on the grounds of incapacity and is payable if you have paid or been credited with enough class 1 or class 2 National Insurance contributions in the relevant tax year. ESA does not include money for children or qualifying young persons. You would have to claim Universal Credit.

A claim to ESA will involve a Work Capability Assessment. There can be 2 parts to this assessment. Initially, you will complete and return form ESA50. This form asks for details of medical professional support you have, medications you are prescribed and how your health affects you on a daily basis. This may be followed by a face to face medical assessment. If you don't fill in and return the form or take part in the medical assessment, your benefit could be stopped. Everyone must go through the Work Capability Assessment although not everyone will be medically examined.

The Work Capability Assessment will determine whether you have Limited Capability for Work and determine whether you should be placed in the Work Related Activity Group or the Support Group. If placed in the Work Related Activity Group you will be required to take part in work focussed interviews and undertake Work Related Activity. This interview will initially take place in your local jobcentre and will involve a discussion on ways to return to work. This could include volunteering, Permitted Work, C.V. Preparation and Interview Techniques, information on local support or a referral to the Work Programme. If placed in the Support Group you are not required to take part in interviews or undertake Work Related Activity. However, you can voluntarily access support to return to work.

ESA is paid at an assessment rate for the first 13 weeks or until after the initial Work Capability Assessment. You will then be moved on to the Main Phase and an additional component may be paid. People who receive the Support Component are not required to have Work-focussed Interviews or undertake Work Related Activity but can volunteer. Special rules apply to terminally ill people (Have a progressive disease and are not expected to live for more than another 6 months). ESA customers will automatically be placed in the Support Group. Terminally ill customers should apply for ADP as soon as possible. To claim ESA, you can apply online Employment and Support Allowance (ESA):

How to claim -  GOV.UK (www.gov.uk), or you can phone

0800 055 6688. If you are unable to use the telephone or need additional help to make a claim, contact the Jobcentre to make an appointment. If you have speech or hearing difficulties you can contact us by using textphone 📞 0800 023 48 88.

Adult Disability Payment (ADP)

PIP/ADP is a benefit to help disabled people live full, active and independent lives. PIP/ADP is based on how their health condition or disability affects them individually.

ADP has replaced DLA and PIP in Scotland for working age adults. Child Disability Payment is the new payment for under 16 year olds. A claim to Adult Disability Payment should be made before 16th Birthday.

ADP is a non-means tested and non-taxable cash benefit which people can spend in a way that best suits them. You can get ADP whether you work or not, therefore it can also help people move into and stay in work.

Claims to ADP are started over the phone to gather basic information. You can ask someone to help with the call but you must be present during the call to help answer security questions. A form will then be sent out for more information about how your health condition or disability affects you.

The claim process includes an assessment by a health professional. Most people will have a face to face consultation. Reviews of an award will be done at appropriate intervals depending on how likely it is for your condition or impairment to change.

There are 2 components to ADP – Daily Living and Mobility needs. Each component can be paid at a standard or enhanced rate.

At April 2023 the weekly rates are:

Daily Living: Standard - £68.10

Daily Living: Enhanced - £101.75

Mobility: Standard - £26.90

Mobility: Enhanced - £71.00

More information on Adult Disability Payment visit  www.mygov.scot/adult-disability-payment

Phone number to make a brand-new claim is ☎ 0800 182 2222

If you live in Scotland and already receive DLA or PIP, Social Security Scotland will move you to Adult Disability Payment. It'll take over your allowance from the DWP when that happens.

Attendance Allowance

The easiest way to think about this is as Adult Disability Payment for pensioners.

You can get Attendance Allowance if you've reached State Pension age and the following apply:

- You have a physical disability (including sensory disability, for example blindness), a mental disability (including learning difficulties), or both,
- Your disability is severe enough for you to need help caring for yourself or someone to supervise you, for your own or someone else's safety,
- You have needed that help for at least 6 months (unless you might have 6 months or less to live).

You must also:

- Be in Great Britain when you claim- there are some exceptions, such as members and family members of the armed forces,
- Have been in Great Britain for at least 2 of the last 3 years (this does not apply if you're a refugee or have humanitarian protection status),
- Be habitually resident in the UK, Ireland, Isle of Man or the Channel Islands,

- Not be subject to immigration control (unless you're a sponsored immigrant).

Attendance Allowance is paid weekly at 2 different rates - the one you get depends on the level of help you need.

Attendance Allowance is not means-tested - what you earn or how much you have in savings will not affect what you get.

Rate	Level of help you need
Lower rate - £68.10	Frequent help or constant supervision during the day, or supervision at night
Higher rate - £101.75	Help or supervision throughout both day and night, or a medical professional has said you might have 6 months or less to live

You could get extra Pension Credit, Housing Benefit or Council Tax Reduction if you get Attendance Allowance - check with the helpline or office dealing with your benefit.

Use the Attendance Allowance claim form to apply by post. The form comes with notes telling you how to fill it in.

Send the completed form to:

Freepost DWP Attendance Allowance

You do not need a postcode or a stamp.

Call the Attendance Allowance helpline to ask for:

- A copy of the form.
 - Alternative formats, such as Braille, large print or audio CD
- Attendance Allowance helpline.

Disabled Living Foundation

The Disabled Living Foundation (DLF) is the UK's leading source of advice and information about all types of daily living equipment for older and disabled people and their families and carers.

DLF's advice and product information allows individuals and relatives to make informed decisions and relevant lifestyle changes – which can assist an individual to remain independent in their home for longer, and provide the carer with peace of mind.

Whether you're finding certain tasks a bit more challenging as you get older, you experience a disability yourself, or you recognise someone in this situation, DLF can help.

With a extensive range of equipment available, it can be difficult to know where to start.

- How do you know what is available?
- How do you know what is right for you?
- Where do you go to buy equipment?
- How do you know if a supplier is reputable?

DLF's comprehensive database, listing over 10,000 daily living aids, allows you to research and compare relevant products and read unbiased information about equipment before contacting suppliers.

In addition to DLF's equipment and supplier information, we have a wide range of factsheets to help with everything from choosing a mobility scooter to assisting someone with eating. Written by occupational therapists, they identify easier ways of doing tasks, which equipment might help and when to ask for a professional assessment.

For individuals who are aware of their difficulties but are not sure which equipment may help them, try DLF's online self-help guide, AskSARA. By selecting a topic and answering a few questions a free personalised report is produced, offering tailored advice on ways to help with daily activities, as well as a comprehensive list of products and suppliers to browse through.

Euan's Guide

We all navigate the world in different ways. Euan's Guide makes it easier for disabled people to find great places to go. We all want to get out there and enjoy life, and having good quality disabled access information reduces unnecessary hassle, inspires confidence and removes fear of the unknown.

 Euansguide.com is the disabled access review site where disabled people, their family, friends and carers can find and share reviews on the accessibility of venues around the UK and beyond. The site is an invaluable tool for everything from planning a day out, to picking a last-minute place for coffee or lunch.

Euan's Guide believe in making the world more accessible one review at a time. There are now thousands of disabled access reviews and listing on Euan's Guide. With good accessibility information being so hard to find, one review is often enough to encourage others to visit. Euan's Guide is opening the door for more people to find new and exciting places to go. Reviews are also sent to venue owners, and this can be a positive and powerful opportunity for education and change.

The charity was founded in 2013 by Euan MacDonald MBE, a powerchair user and his sister Kiki after Euan was diagnosed with Motor Neurone Disease and a lack of disabled access made everyday experiences stressful. By breaking down the barriers of exclusion with the help of other people in the same situation, Euan's Guide hopes to give everyone the freedom to explore.

Help with Housing Adaptations

Midlothian Council Adults and Social Care Service offers assessments to help people with disabilities to be as independent as possible in daily living tasks at home.

The outcome of the assessment may lead to a recommendation for a major adaptation. Assessments for these are normally provided by Occupational Therapists. The aim is to support people where, without a major adaptation to their property, the person would be unable to continue to live at home safely or independently.

A major adaptation could be:

- Replacing the bath with a walk in shower,
- A stairlift,
- A ramp for wheelchair access,
- Fitting lower work surfaces makes the kitchen more manageable.

The recommendation for any adaptation relates to the disabled person's current and long-term needs and links to the anticipated course of their impairment. The needs of the carers will also be considered. Decisions about whether to support an adaptation will take into account the benefits to the disabled person's independence and support to carers over the long-term.

Sometimes an adaptation to your home is not feasible and the only way to meet your long-term needs would be to move to another property. The Occupational Therapist will assist you to explore all your options.

Funding

Funding for major adaptations depends on the ownership of the home. If the disabled person is an owner occupier or tenant in private rented property, a Home Improvement Grant may be available towards the cost of an adaptation.

If the person lives in council or housing association property the adaptation will normally be funded by the landlord.

The minimum home improvement grant you will get is 80% of the total cost. If you are on certain benefits then a grant could be 100%. Before an application for a home improvement grant is submitted, an Occupational Therapist from the Adults and Social Care Service must be consulted and agree to the work, and written documentation obtained identifying the relevant work.

Home adaptations and specialist equipment guidelines 2023 are available to download on the Midlothian Council website. 🌐 www.midlothian.gov.uk/info/1439/adults_with_disabilities/83/adapt_your_home_for_disability

Housing Options Scotland was established in 1997 to provide a unique public access service to all disabled people throughout Scotland. Housing Options Scotland does not directly provide housing, what Housing Options Scotland does provide is detailed information and advice that will enable you to find the right home for you. Housing Options Scotland's main aim is to ensure that disabled people have access to suitable housing in the tenure of their choice and recognising that gaining access to owner-occupation remains problematic.

Housing Options Scotland has three main areas of activity. Firstly, we directly assist disabled people by advising them on, and supporting them through, the complex design, financial and legal processes involved in buying or renting a property. Secondly, we provide information, advice and training on housing and disability issues to the public, private and voluntary sectors to improve the service disabled people get. Finally, we raise the awareness of the problems disabled people face in relation to their housing and highlight the solutions and opportunities that exist.

Housing Options Scotland has a dedicated team of volunteers. These volunteers enable Housing Options Scotland as an organisation to learn about the housing problems disabled people face by directly assisting them, and using the knowledge we gain to effect changes in policies and practice.

SP Energy Network

If you have a disability make sure you register that disability with your electricity supplier, once on the Priority Service Register and you have a power outage you should call your network operator. Cordless phones will not work as they require power to connect the phone to the land-line. From a mobile phone call your network operator or the emergency number 105.

You can join the SP Energy Network Priority Services Register if:

- You are over the age of 60,
- Have a special communication need,
- Depend on electricity for home or medical care,
- Have a child under 5 years of age,
- Have chronic illness,
- Feel you need a little extra help.

If you register with the Priority Service they will let you know in advance of a planned interruption to your electricity supply and they will keep in touch with regular updates during a power cut and if necessary, can work with external agencies who may be able to assist.
